

Biography

Ezgi Yağmur Bilgin was born on July 3, 1994 in Ankara. She started violin lessons at the age of 9. In 2005 she accepted to the cello department of the Hacettepe University State Conservatory and started cello with Doç. İzzet Nazlıaka. She gave many concerts as an orchestra member and solo. She took part in the Hacettepe University Symphony Orchestra, Limak Philharmonic Orchestra and Ankara Youth Symphony Orchestra and Pan-Caucasian Youth Orchestra. Ginandrea Nosedá, Vasily Petrenko, Charles Dutoit, Jukka-Pekka Saraste, Claudio Vandelli, Lahav Shani, Gürer Aykal, Orhun Orhon, Renkm Gökmen, Burak Tüzün is among the maestros she works with. She attended Frans Helmerson, Amedeo Cicchese, Carol Ou, Christoph Henkel, Emilio Colon, Elinor Frey, Ozan Tunca, Çağ Erçağ and Dilbağ Tokay's masteclasses. In 2016 she graduated from the Hacettepe University Ankara State Conservatory with the status of a high honor student and in the same year, she accepted Master degree program in Anadolu University State Conservatory. She started to study with Prof. Dr. Ozan Evrim Tunca. She graduated with the same status in 2019. By winning the audition opened by Tsinandali Festival held in Georgia, she become a member of the Pan-Caucasian Youth Orchestra in 2019, also got invited to the next festivals and also played in 2022. She continues her studies at Ankara University State Conservatory with Doç. Sinan Dizmen.