

"The artist was born in Ankara. In 2000, she passed the exams of Anadolu University State Conservatory and started her cello education with Melih Kara. Then, she continued her studies with Prof. Dr. Ozan Evrim Tunca, from whom she graduated, and gave many chamber music, orchestra concerts, and solo recitals in Turkey. During her high school and university years, she performed concerts with Anadolu University Youth Symphony Orchestra and served as the group leader. In the same years, she joined the Turkey-Armenia Youth Symphony Orchestra conducted by Cem Mansur and Nvart Andreassian. She has also received cello lessons from Benyamin Sönmez, Çağ Erçağ, Doğan Cangal, Şölen Dikener, Yuri Semenov, Arthur Rahmatulla, and Can Elbi, and actively participated in chamber music courses by Selim Giray and Orhan Ahıskal. In 2011, she was invited to the New World Young Orchestra in the United States, and in 2012, she performed as a soloist with Eskisehir Metropolitan Municipality Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Maestro Ender Sakpınar, at the Young Soloists Concert, performing Eduard Lalo's Cello Concerto. In the same year, she participated in specific concerts as a group leader with Ankara Youth Symphony Orchestra, where she played as a cellist. Since 2015, she has been a member of the cello section in Mugla Municipality Orchestra, also serving as a group leader for major concerts."
